

Top Tips for Revision in French

- Vary your revision: try a listening exercise, then a reading exercise, then some speaking and writing.
- Spend no longer than 30 minutes on 1 skill.
- Use the AQA 9-1 workbook to practice listening and reading exam questions.
- Use your support booklet to identify key verbs and vocab to revise.
- Use online resources such as BBC Bitesize and apps such as Duolingo for quick practice.
- Try past papers on the AQA website (link below).

Key Revision Techniques

- Self-quizzing. Watch this video to explain this technique: self-quizzing Languages - YouTube
- Memory cards. Ask someone to test you, tick words in pencil if you remember them, say them out loud.
- Practice writing. Take a MWB and pen home, practice writing paragraphs on different topics using your memory cards.
- Languages are not just about memory, they are a SKILL. Practising exam questions for reading and listening will improve your ability.
- Label objects around the house to increase your vocab.
- Use platforms such as YouTube/iPlayer to watch French films.
