

Personal investigation

Part 3

What should be completed by now?

- Purchased a new sketchbook
- Left a blank page for the title
- Left a blank page for a mind map
- Submitted the proposal form
- Completed a page on your anticipation of visiting the work virtually
- Completed an artist research page on your first artist
- Completed a page responding to an image by artist using their techniques (view finder and whole image) annotated.

Next step.... Working in the style of your artist

- This week I would like you to take a picture in the style of your artist. For example if your artist is a portrait artist you will need to take a picture of a persons face.
- I would then like you to add this to a new page in your book and recreate this in the style of your artist using their techniques. Whereas last week you were copying the work this week you are reproducing your own work in their style.
- For textiles you will need to develop your sample from last weeks task in your own style – eg develop a pattern by using the style and colours of your designer but make it your own work.
- Please see next page for examples

Your photo in the style of the artist

Artists work

Your work in the style of the artist working from your photo

So there should be three things on your new page....

- 1- A small image of your main artists work just a reference
- 2- Your own photo in the artists style and genre
- 3- Your work from the photo you have taken using the artists techniques.

Some examples of responses to artists work

note they have more than one drawing / painting we are expecting one or two with a photo to support it.

Artists work

Textile response

- The purpose of this exercise is to learn particular techniques or compositional strategies – not to copy their work in its entirety. The result should be a series of paintings which show gradual changes and exploration. To thoroughly explore the artists work and begin developing it as your own while still keeping the artists work in mind and showing inspiration from them.
