Introduction

Okehampton College is committed to ensuring that candidates are fully briefed on the examination and assessment process in place in the centre and are made aware of the required JCQ/awarding body instructions and information for candidates. There is a copy of the JQC ICE booklet, which is the regulations that all colleges follow, on the website under 'exams'.

Purpose of this handbook

- To support/complement candidate briefings/assemblies
- To inform candidates about malpractice in examinations/assessments
- To inform candidates about the use of their personal data and copyright
- To ensure candidates are provided with all relevant information about their exams and assessments in advance of any exams/assessments being taken
- To ensure copies of relevant JCQ information for candidate's documents and exam room posters are provided in advance of any exams/assessments being taken
- To answer questions candidates may have
- To inform candidates of/signpost candidates (and where relevant parents/carers) to any exams-related policies/procedures that they need to be made aware of

Malpractice

Malpractice means any act of practise which is in breach of regulations.

- Any alleged, suspected or actual incidents of malpractice will be investigated and reported to the relevant awarding body/bodies
- JCQ provides information regarding what constitutes malpractice:
 - Introduction of unauthorised material into the examination room
 - Breaches of examination conditions
 - Exchanging, obtaining, receiving, or passing on information which could be examination related (or the attempt to)
 - Offences relating to the content of candidates' work
 - Undermining the integrity of examinations/assessments

Refer to ICE 24 and the Indicative sanctions against candidates (Appendix 6, Suspected Malpractice - Policies and Procedures)

Refer to the current Information for candidates – social media

You need to know that the following would be malpractice:

- copying or allowing work to be copied – e.g. posting written work on social networking sites prior to an examination/assessment;
- collusion: allowing others to help produce your work or helping others with theirs.
- asking others about what questions your exam will include (even if no one tells you);
- having or sharing details about exam questions before the exam - whether you think these are real or fake; or
- not telling exam boards or your school/college about exam information being shared.

Personal data

- The awarding bodies collect information about exam candidates
 - To understand what information is collected and how it is used, you must read the JCQ Information for candidates – Privacy Notice (which is located on the school website under 'exams')
- Refer to GR 6 and Information for candidates – Privacy Notice

Copyright

- The copyright of any form of work created by a candidate that is submitted to an awarding body for assessment (referred to as Assessment Materials) belongs to the candidate
 - By submitting this work, a candidate is granting the awarding body a non-exclusive, royalty-free licence to use their assessment materials (referred to as Assessment Licence)
 - If a candidate wishes to terminate the awarding body's rights for anything other than assessing his/her work, the awarding body must be notified by the centre and it is at the discretion of the awarding body whether or not to terminate such rights
- Refer to GR 6

Written timetabled exams

Candidate exam timetable will be provided to all students with sufficient notice. This will be emailed to their school email accounts. The timetable will show the name of the exam (subject) the date, time, location, and seat number. When the student receives their timetables, they must spend time looking over all exams. It is the responsibility of the student that they check:

They are entered for the subjects they are expecting.

They are at the correct location (access arrangements – outside of the sports hall)

Their candidate number is correct

They are entered for the correct tier, if applicable.

If a student identifies any issues with their timetable they must seek guidance from the exams officer by going to the exam's office or by emailing isimpson@okehamptoncollege.devon.sch.uk

In preparation for written exams please see below:

- The JCQ information for candidates documents – written examinations, social media (on the school website and at the back of this pack)
- Exam room posters – Warning to candidates, Unauthorised items Refer to GR 5.8(on the school website and at the back of this pack)

Where you will take your exams

Okehampton College – there is a contingency plan if this venue cannot be used.

What time your exams will start and finish

If the examinations are mock exams, these will run through the school day, only during lessons. This means students do not miss break or lunch; however, it does mean they will be at different start times to the external exams. Please refer to your timetable for the times of your exams.

External exams run in AM and PM sittings, the morning exams start at 9am and the afternoon at 1:30pm.

Supervision during your exams

- Exams are supervised by a team of invigilators. Okehampton College have a team of DBS checked staff to run supervised exams. During mocks, or at time where we are shorter staffed you might see some Okehampton College staff invigilating as well.
- Exam invigilators must follow strict rules and regulations when conducting exams as directed by JCQ awarding bodies.

Exam room conditions

The main exams at Okehampton College are run in the sports hall and other small rooms. The candidate timetable will state the room and seat number. Students should take account of this. Students need to arrive ten minutes before the start time on the timetable.

For Exams in the Hall:

- Students should be aware of their seat number.
- Students are required to line up under the canopy outside the exam hall. There are signs with letters on, corresponding with the seating plan in the hall. Students should line up under the letter stated on their seat number. For example, candidate in seat A4 must line up under the letter A.
- Students are expected to stand in silence under the canopy.
- Students will be called by row; they will leave their bags and all other belongings in the PE changing rooms. Students must do this in SILENCE.
- After the belongings have been left, students will enter the hall in SILENCE and go straight to their seat.
- Students must not open the exam paper.
- Once in the hall all students are under 'formal examination conditions'.
- Candidates must listen to and always follow the instructions of the invigilator in the exam room.
- Candidates must not communicate with or disturb other candidates.
- There will be centre number posters, and row signs displayed in the hall. The subject, and length of exam will be written on the white board.
- There will be a 'candidate card' on the desk, this should be used to fill out any relevant information relating to the completion of the front of their answer books (first name and surname that matches their entry information, candidate number) and that this must not be completed until instructed to do so by the invigilator
- Candidates must not open the question paper until the examination begins

Refer to ICE 19

Exams out of the Hall:

Small room exams, students must go to the location stated on the timetable. They must line up in silence outside the room, the invigilator will then provide details on how to enter the room and where to place belongings.

Where you will sit in the exam room

- All candidates will have a seat letter and number. For example, B8, this candidate would be sat in row B seat 8. There will be posters clearly showing each row and column of seats in the hall. When the candidate sits down, they must check that the candidate card on the desk is theirs.
- If you can not find your seat you must move silently to the back of the hall and raise your hand.

Please note that due to the relaxing of Covid regulation students will have a different seat for each exam, this ensures that candidates are sat in subject/tier groups. This means that if there are multiple papers running at the same time in the Exam Hall, students will not be disturbed when groups of students leave.

How your identity is confirmed in the exam room

All candidates will have a card with a coloured photograph on. This is used to identify the students in the hall. This must stay in the hall and not be tampered with.

Refer to ICE 16

What equipment you need to bring to your exams

It is the responsibility of the student to have the correct equipment for all exams, including spares.

- If a pencil case is used it must be a CLEAR PENCIL CASE.
- Only BLACK INK can be used for answers. Coloured pens or pencils can be used in diagrams, charts or in the written questions.
- You must bring a working CALCULATOR to exams that require it, this must have the case removed.
- Subject exams will require specialist equipment. Subject departments will instruct students on what is required. For example, mathematics will require a ruler, protractor and compass.
- Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.
- You must not write on any pages marked 'BLANK'. You must not use derogative language or swear words in your answers, these can be refused to be marked, unless it is a quote from a referenced text.

Okehampton College will provide tracing paper.

Please contact the exams office if you are unable to meet the equipment requirements, due to personal circumstances.

Refer to ICE 18

Using calculators

You must be aware of JCQ awarding body instructions regarding the use of calculators in your exams.

10.3 Candidates must be told these regulations beforehand and be familiar with the Information for candidates documents.

Calculators must be:

- of a size suitable for use on the desk;
- either battery or solar powered;
- free of lids, cases and covers which have printed instructions or formulae.

Calculators must not:

- be designed or adapted to offer any of these facilities:
 - language translators;
 - symbolic algebra manipulation;
 - symbolic differentiation or integration;
 - communication with other machines or the internet;
- be borrowed from another candidate during an examination for any reason;
- have retrievable information stored in them. This includes:
 - databanks;
 - dictionaries;
 - mathematical formulae;
 - text.

The candidate is responsible for the following:

- the calculator's power supply;
- the calculator's working condition;
- clearing anything stored in the calculator.

Refer to ICE 10

(Captured from JCQ Instructions for conducting examinations 2022-2023, section 10.3 on 8 September 2022)

What you should not bring into the exam room

Students must not bring in:

- Ipods
- Mobile phones
- MP3/4 Players or similar devices
- Watches, of any kind, including analogue watches.

Students must leave all the above in their bags. There will be reminders for students to leave unauthorised items:

1. When leaving their bags, they will be reminded to leave any unauthorised items in their bags.
2. When entering the hall, they will have the chance to place unauthorised items in the tray.
3. Before the start of the exam, they will be asked again if they have any unauthorised items.

If any unauthorised items are handed in they will be placed into a tray by an invigilator. In the tray there will be numbered envelopes with a corresponding number ticket. Unauthorised items will be placed into an envelope by an invigilator and the numbered ticket handed to the student. The student's name will also be recorded and attached to the envelope. In line with school policy, these unauthorised items will be taken to reception, where they will be stored securely. Students should take their ticket to reception at the end of the exam to collect their items.

If a candidate refuses to follow these instructions they will be removed from the exam and the Okehampton College behaviour policy will be followed.

Food and drink in exam rooms

Food is not allowed in the exam room, including chewing gum.

Food is only allowed in the exam room after permission has been granted by the Exams Officer for medical reasons, evidence should be submitted in advance.

Drinks are allowed to be in the exam room, but they must follow the regulations below:

- Drinks bottles must be transparent with all labels removed which would include transparent, reusable bottles.

Refer to ICE 18

What to do if you arrive late for your exam

Students must arrive at their exam with plenty of time. If a student is late, they may still enter the exam at the discretion of the Principal. If a student is classed as 'very late' more than an hour, the exam board will be contacted.

Refer to ICE 21

What to do if you are unwell on the day of your exam

If a student is unwell and still takes part in the exam, special consideration can be applied for, this does not guarantee any change to grade.

If a student misses an exam, evidence must be provided and special consideration applied for.

What happens in the event of an emergency in the exam room

Below is the procedure to be followed in the event of an emergency.

In an emergency such as a fire alarm or a bomb alert, the invigilator must take the following action:

- stop the candidates from writing;
- collect the attendance register (in order to ensure all candidates are present) and evacuate the examination room in line with the instructions given by the appropriate authority;
- advise candidates to leave all question papers and scripts in the examination room. Candidates must be advised to close their answer booklet;

- ensure the candidates leave the room in silence;
- ensure candidates are supervised as closely as possible while they are out of the examination room so that there is no discussion about the examination;
- make a note of the time of the interruption and how long it lasted;
- allow the candidates the remainder of the working time set for the examination once it resumes;
- if there are only a few candidates, consider the possibility of taking the candidates (with question papers and scripts) to another place to finish the examination;
- make a full report of the incident and of the action taken and send to the relevant awarding body.

Students will be asked to leave their exams papers and leave in silence as they are called row by row. Students will walk in silence to the hard courts behind the exam hall. An invigilator will be waiting here and will line them up in rows in silence. A register will be taken. Students must remain silent and exam conditions continue for the duration they are outside of the room. Please follow the instructions given by the invigilator.
